Dear Climate Change Adaptation Colleagues,
This email is to remind you of the forthcoming seminar by professors Sam Ham (University of Idaho) and John Martin (La Trobe University):

Communicating about Climate Change Adaptation: Reflections on a Workshop Process

Wednesday, 17th November, 1-3 pm
Seminar room 1, Storey Hall, RMIT University
336-342 Swanston Street, Melbourne

In October and November Sam Ham is working with John Martin under a Fulbright Senior Specialist award to apply Sam's insight and skills in 'thematic communication' working with academic staff in regional campuses across Victoria engaging with local community leaders to develop effective communication strategies to adopt climate change adaptation practices. This will include La Trobe at Bendigo, Deakin at Warrnambool, RMIT at Hamilton, Monash in Churchill and the University of Ballarat.

On 17 November Sam and John will report on this workshop program identifying learning from the project for future adaptation planning in Victoria.

Enquiries regarding this seminar can be directed to VCCCAR, (03) 9035 0235 or enquiries-vcccar@unimelb.edu.au.

RSVP enquiries-vcccar@unimelb.edu.au by 16 November.
Regards,

Doug.
